The images used in the article must be in the format: jpg, gif, bmp. Figures, tables, diagrams are placed in the center of the page within the specified fields.

Each drawing/diagram must have a signature (under the drawing/diagram). The caption begins with the word "Fig./Scheme", then the number of the figure / scheme is indicated and after the dot its name. The numbering of drawings/diagrams is in Arabic numerals. The alignment of the signature is centered, the dot is not placed at the end of the signature. All figures/diagrams should be referenced in the text. At the same time, in the appropriate place of the text of the article, a reference to them is given in parentheses, for example: (Fig./Scheme 1) or (see Fig./scheme 1).

The tables are located within the working field.

The word "Table" (right alignment) is placed in front of it, then the number is indicated, the dot after the table number is not placed. Numbering is in Arabic numerals. The name of the table is the alignment in the center of the row. All tables should be referenced in the text. At the same time, in the appropriate place of the text of the article, a reference to them is given in parentheses, for example: (Table.1)

References to the bibliographic list are in square brackets (if there are several sources, write separated by semicolons).

All articles are subject to mandatory review and plagiarism testing (the service is used www.antiplagiat.ru). The originality of the text should be at least 75% of the volume of the article. A screenshot of the page with plagiarism check indicators should be attached by the author to the article.

Before the title of the article, the author specifies the UDC classifier (Reference Book on UDC – <http://teacode.com/online/udc/>).

Title design:

THE TITLE OF THE ARTICLE – in capital letters, alignment in the center of the line.

Next – italics font, right alignment: Full name of the author of the article, academic degree, academic title, university name, place of work, position, country, city, E-mail (font size 12).

If there are several authors of the article, the information is repeated for each author.

Abstract in Russian and English: no more than 600 characters (with spaces).

Keywords in Russian and English, words are separated from each other by a semicolon.

After 1 line – the text of the article. After 1 line - the inscription "List of used sources". Bibliographic references should be numbered and placed in alphabetical order, and not in the sequence of references in the article (the first reference (square brackets) in the article may go, for example, under the number 2 or 18). We use the Interstate standard "Bibliographic record GOST 7.1 -2003".

The Editorial Board reserves the right to reject materials that do not meet the requirements for their content and design. The manuscripts of the articles are not reviewed and are not returned to the authors.
